

SECOND MONDAY DIALOGUE:

CHET GALASKA

AUTHOR OF

FINDING FAITH IN A SKEPTICAL WORLD

MONDAY, MARCH 8, AT NOON
MARSH MEMORIAL CHAPEL

C. William "Chet" Galaska was born in 1951. He began his college career at Drew University and graduated from the University of Hartford with a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration. He co-founded a company that grew into a multi-million dollar enterprise and was its president for 24 years. In 2003, he sold his interest in the company and now invests in real estate.

His credentials are defined by what he is not. He isn't a theologian, Ph.D., pastor or philosopher.

He's a person who was an unbeliever, influenced by the same things as other skeptics, who became a Christian after several years of investigating the faith with an open mind. His book is a down-to-earth explanation of what he learned.

SPONSORED BY THE SPIRITUAL LIFE CENTER AT SPRINGFIELD COLLEGE